Condensed Classes

Thursday Sept 27—Oct 18 4:30-6:30pm Sewing Room	Doll Making—Judy Sanders Age 7 & Up Work with a pattern to cut and sew your own personalized doll! Design your doll's hair and create clothes and accessories for your newly-made friend, like mini quilts, pants and pajamas. Some sewing experience recommended. Students are welcome to bring their own machine, but not required.	$55
Wednesday Oct 24—Nov 14 4:30-6:00pm Round Room	Creative Writing for Teens—Ellen Deaton Ages 14—17 Improve your creative writing (short stories, poems, essays) by using your imagination, experiences and surroundings. In this class, discussions and storytelling will help build your portfolio, your critical thinking and strengthen your story-telling and communication skills. Draw inspiration from writing prompts, works of art, The Baker Hunt campus, and from one another.	$50
Saturday Sept 29 —Oct 20 2:15-4:15pm Auditorium	Sketchbook Safari— Luke Schutzman Age 10 & Up In this wild class on sketching and observation, develop your own field sketchbooks while spending time making art from watching the birds, insects, plant life and more on the campus grounds. Each class we will spend time sharing what we have created that week and talking through tips and tricks for field sketching, as well as demos on plein air sketching, painting and drawing. Join us for an exploration of creativity and learn how to observe the natural world to feed your own imagination! *Please bring your own 8.5x11 sketchbook, suitable for mixed media projects	$40
Tuesday Oct 23, 30, Nov 6, 13 6:00-8:00pm Auditorium	Faux Bronze Sculpture—Beth Schott Age 14 & Up Create an armature wire sculpture and cover with a unique faux bronze technique. These fun sculptures are easily constructed using wire, foil and paper! Faux Bronze Sculpture is a great lesson for learning the concept of balance in art and how important gesture is in all figurative work. Some materials provided. Student should bring needle nose pliers. The first class will include movement studies from live models!	$55
